Welcoming, genuine and relaxed, One Penny Red has heart and menu with a dedication to provenance, comfort food and feel-good conviviality.

Co-owner and chef RJ Lines invites you to 'trust the chef' with a sharing menu that changes weekly.

It opens with agrodolce giardiniera pickles and finishes with a show-stopping wood-roasted Thirlmere free-range chook. Lines' crispy spiced salt potatoes are impeccably golden and crisp, while the roasted brussels sprouts with smoked beef dripping and garlic have a subtle Chinese bent.

A night cap at upstairs Vernon's Bar is a sure way to end on a high.
